Dr. Joel Beeke, Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary

Welcome!

In this place we come out of the world to enter heaven to be served by the Triune God of grace in his Word and Sacraments, to serve him in song and prayer, and to serve each other in love and fellowship. If you are visiting our church today and would like more information about us please take a Visitor Packet from the foyer and help yourself to anything on our literature rack.

Visitors & Holy Communion

Holy Communion is meant to unite us to Jesus Christ as well as each other. As a visible expression of our unity, the apostle Paul says, “Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread” (1 Cor. 10:17). For this reason, our elders have the responsibility to oversee those who partake; therefore we welcome:

- ☞ Communicant members-in-good-standing of congregations in the URC.
- ☞ Communicant members-in-good-standing of congregations with whom the URC has ecclesiastical relations as members of the North American Presbyterian and Reformed Council—Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Canadian Reformed Churches, Free Reformed Churches, Heritage Reformed Congregations, Korean American Presbyterian Church, Orthodox Presbyterian Church, Presbyterian Church in America, Presbyterian Reformed Church, Reformed Church in the United States, Reformed Church of Quebec, and Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America.
- ☞ Those who are not members of one of the above, but who:
 1. Believe in Jesus Christ alone for their salvation.
 2. Have been baptized in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
 3. Are communicant members, not presently under church discipline, of a confessional Reformed or Presbyterian congregation.

If this does not describe you or if you do not understand this, please abstain. Since we desire to welcome you at the Table to receive Christ and his benefits, we invite you to speak with a Pastor and elder after worship to schedule a time when we can meet to discuss your relationship with Christ and his Church. Please understand that if you do not meet these requirements, we are not saying that there are Christians only in Reformed churches. Rather, this helps us to be reasonably assured that you are like-minded by belonging to a church with a common confession of the Christian faith.

Children in Worship & Nursery

Since the Scriptures teach that the Church is a community of those in covenant with God—parents and their children—children join us in the corporate service as they did in the days of Israel (Ps. 78:4). As fellow members in the church (Rom. 12:4–5) we accept their presence and “joyful noise” in the service (Ps. 100:1). We understand this is a different way of worshipping and that it may be difficult if you are used to “children’s church.” For this reason we do provide a staffed nursery for children under 4 in the classroom directly outside the auditorium and down the stairs. For an excellent resource on children in worship, please take a copy of Parenting in the Pew in the foyer.

READING OF THE LAW—Exodus 20:1–17 (New King James Version)

And God spoke all these words, saying, I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

The First Commandment

You shall have no other gods before Me.

The Second Commandment

You shall not make for yourself a carved image—any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

The Third Commandment

You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain.

The Fourth Commandment

Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates. For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.

The Fifth Commandment

Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

The Sixth Commandment

You shall not murder.

The Seventh Commandment

You shall not commit adultery.

The Eighth Commandment

You shall not steal.

The Ninth Commandment

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

The Tenth Commandment

You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male servant, nor his female servant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that is your neighbor's.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Dearly loved brothers and sisters, we are called to examine ourselves in the light of God's Law. Let us go to God in confession:

Our Father, we are sinful and you are holy. We recognize that we have heard in your Law difficult words, knowing how often we have offended you in thought, word and deed, not only by obvious violations, but by failing to conform to its perfect commands, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. There is nothing in us that gives us reason for hope, for where we thought we were well, we are sick in soul. Where we thought we were holy, we are in truth unholy and ungrateful. Our hearts are filled with the love of the world; our minds are dark and are assailed by doubts; our wills are too often given to selfishness and our bodies to laziness and unrighteousness. By sinning against our neighbors, we have also sinned against you, in whose image they were created. In this time of confession we bring you our particular sins.

Our Father, although you are a holy God who cannot look upon sin, look upon Christ our Savior and forgive us for his sake. You have promised us that if we confess our sins, you are faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. For if we do sin, we have an Advocate before your throne, Jesus Christ the Righteous, and he is the propitiation for our sins. Give us your pardon by your mercies, dear Father, for you have clothed us in Christ's righteousness. We ask also that you would give us an increase of the grace of your Holy Spirit, so that we may learn the wisdom of your ways and walk in your holy paths, for your glory and the good of our neighbor. Amen.

PSALM 51:10–12—Create in Me a Clean Heart (sung a cappella)

Create in me a clean heart, O God. And renew a right spirit within me. (2x)

Cast me not away from your presence, O LORD. And take not your Holy Spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of your salvation. And renew a right spirit within me.

*DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

¶ Then is said responsively:

O LORD, open my lips.

And my mouth shall show forth your praise! Psalm 51:15

Praise the LORD.

The LORD's name be praised! Psalm 135:1

*SONG OF THE MONTH—Psalm 22:22–28, Amid the Thronging Worshipers (Psalter Hymnal 37)

*APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father, Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell*; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit; a holy catholic Church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

* This phrase has been understood in the Reformed Churches as meaning two things: as to the body of Jesus Christ, he descended into the state of death; as to the soul of Jesus Christ, he suffered the agonies of hell (Catechism of the Church of Geneva, Q&A 66, 67, 70; Westminster Confession of Faith 8.4; Westminster Larger Catechism, Q&A 50; Heidelberg Catechism, Q&A 44).

 Catholic means universal, that is, that there is one Church across all times, places, and peoples (Belgic Confession, art. 27; Heidelberg Catechism, Q&A 54).
